

Presented by

The Hopkins Centre

Research for Rehabilitation and Resilience

Office of the Queensland Chief Scientist

The Dignity Project

SHARE YOUR STORIES

AND BE A PART OF MEANINGFUL CHANGE

Help The Dignity Project uncover the meaning of dignity for people with disability.

Your stories have power to uncover the past and reveal future possibilities for preserving dignity for all people. Join the conversation at The Community Hub by visiting our website and taking part in the forums and surveys.

Have Your Say

Share your valuable experiences or stories in our forums.

Citizen Science

Become a citizen researcher at the cutting-edge intersection between human experience of disability and science.

Moderator's Corner

Engage with Angel Dixon in a blog style space that highlights issues that affect dignity.

BECOME A MEMBER

Who - We welcome all people who identify as a person with disability or impairment.

Register - Visit our website and complete the intake survey to register your interest.

Engage - Share your stories in fortnightly forums and with other members.

MEET OUR TEAM

PROF. ELIZABETH KENDALL

Executive Director
The Hopkins Centre

KELSEY CHAPMAN

Co-ordinating Principal Investigator

DR KEVIN COCKS AM DUniv.

Former Qld Anti Discrimination
Commissioner, HREOC Aust.
Human Rights Medal (2005)
and Centenary Medal (2003)

ANGEL DIXON

Citizen Researcher
Young Queenslander
of the Year 2019

T +61 7 3382 1295

E hopkinscentre@griffith.edu.au

W www.hopkinscentre.edu.au