

Voice of Queenslanders with Disability

It is important for all of us to live, work, learn and play in a Queensland that is accessible, welcoming, and inclusive for people with disability and their family/carers. Share your stories in a state first report on what life is like for Queenslanders with disability in co-designed research with Queenslanders with Disability Network and Griffith University.

Queenslanders with disability, family members of people with disability, carers and service providers

Are you a Queenslander with disability or a family member/carer of a Queenslander with disability?

Is improving the lives of Queenslanders with disability important to you?

How are Queenslanders with disability included in:

Working & earning money

Inclusive homes & communities

Rights, fairness & safety

Getting support

Learning & skills

Health & wellbeing

Community attitudes

Scan the QR Code to register your interest in sharing your stories via the Voice of Queenslanders with Disability and The Dignity Project.

More Information

Please call to speak to a researcher about questions, concerns or to register your interest.

Kelsey Chapman | Research Lead

T 0424 868 998 E dignityproject@griffith.edu.au

Your Information Stays Private

Powered by the Dignity Project and funded by the Queensland Government:

